On motion of Mr. Wheeler, the following report was spread upon the journal:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL SUBCOMMITTEE
TO STUDY COMPETITION BETWEEN GOVERNMENT
AND PRIVATE ENTERPRISE (HR 29)

On May 4, 1983 the House adopted HR 29 which called for the creation of a special subcommittee of the House Commerce Committee to study competition between government and private enterprise. Chairman Murray appointed to the committee Representative Tom Wheeler, Chairman; Representative Townie Anderson and Representative Matt Kisber.

The committee held public hearings in several locations across the state to solicit the comments and receive testimony from individuals, businessmen, and interest groups. These public hearings were as follows:

October 28, 1983 - Nashville

November 11, 1983 - Knoxville

December 9, 1983 - Memphis

January 27, 1984 - Jackson

In addition to the members of the committee, the following legislators attended at least one of the public hearings of the committee: Representative Ed Murray, Representative Shelby Rhinehart, Representative Dan Byrd, Representative Pam Gaia, Representative Harper Brewer, Representative Dub Nance, Representative Jimmy Wallace, and Senator Curtis Person.

Appearing at the public hearings to give testimony were representatives of management consultants, hearing aid dispensers, forestry growers, hospitals, welfare organizations, contractors, state universities, state departments and the national federation of independent business.

The testimony presented revealed that in many instances governmental agencies provided services in direct competition with private enterprise. Often the services provided by the governmental agencies are not essential functions of their mission but only collaterally related to their main functions. Because these governmental agencies enjoy tax advantages, rent subsidies and the purchasing power of the larger governmental organization they have an unfair competitive advantage over the small businessman.

The committee believes that the problem presented is a serious one -- and a growing one. As government grows, it not only provides services to more people, it continues to expand its range of services into areas that could or are being filled by private enterprise.

In response to the problem presented the committee had drafted legislation which would limit the ability of the government to compete with private enterprise and would establish a review board to consider conflicts between government and private enterprise. This legislation is based on similar legislation in Arizona, and the committee would propose its adoption.

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Wheeler, Chairman

Townie Anderson

Matt Kisber
